Sponsor one or more students on an educational field trip
As part of each program, we try to take our students on educational, interesting, stimulating, and fun field trips. For instance, locally we will often take them to the John Heinz Wilderness Preserve. We also take students to out of state destinations such as the Stoneland Harbor Wetlands Institute near Atlantic City and the Baltimore Aquarium. Between bus rentals, admission fees, and refreshments, a local trip may cost $10-$25 per student, while an out of state trip may cost $45-$75.

Yard Sales Shopping for SafeHome “House to Home Boutique”
Most families in SafeHome start with virtually no home furnishings. We provide beds and bedding, and we constantly search for inexpensive, decent furniture. But it is the little things for kitchens, bathrooms and living rooms – bright towels, dishes, appliances, rugs, pillows, comforters, baskets – which really turn a place into your personal space. It’s yard sale season where such things exist in abundance – usually at the right price. We ask you to shop yard sales or flea markets, or donate these things you find in your basements so that we can set up a “boutique” in our second floor where families can shop to furnish their new homes.
